TEAM HEALTH

OBJECTIVES

1. Help them understand that trust is the basis of all team health
2. Increase team health

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

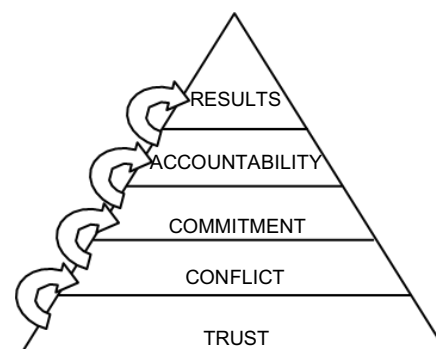

Time: 2.45 hours (LTM page 2)

- Ask: Have you read 5 Dysfunctions of a Team to prepare?
 - Read first 2 paragraphs from page vii (just read the quote in paragraph 2)
 - Recap the book by writing on the board, following the outline in (D1), and having them take notes and draw the pyramid on page 2 of their LTM.
- Here is what you read (Starting from the bottom of the pyramid going up.)
 - Trust: Letting guards down; being vulnerable; speaking freely and openly. It's a chain reaction.
 - Conflict: Leads to great debate; going deep; getting below the surface.
 - Commitment: Which produces buy-in, because everyone has been heard and respected.
 - Accountability: So, we hold each other accountable to follow through on commitments.
 - Results: Which produces results, far beyond unhealthy teams/less effort.
- That's what it looks like when it's healthy.
- The book was written in the inverse the 5 dysfunctions.
- Main point: it's a chain reaction, so we focus on building trust (circle TRUST); the rest will take care of itself.
- Restate as dysfunctions (starting from the bottom of the pyramid going up).
- Root of all dysfunction:
 - Absence of Trust, it's a chain reaction.
 - Fear of Conflict
 - Lack of Commitment

LTM PAGES AND DIAGRAMS

D1

It's a chain reaction

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

- Avoidance of Accountability
- Inattention to Results
- Even if you're getting pretty good results, but you lack trust, you're having to work way too hard to get those results.
- Questions, comments, concerns?

Rate Team Health

Let's get a sense of how we're doing as a team.

- Open & honest rate the team on how you are doing at each level of the pyramid on a scale of 1 to 10.
 - I just painted you a picture of what 10 looks like.
 - For example, a 10 in trust is where you're all letting your guard down, open & honest, everything is fair game.
 - Take 2 quiet minutes and rate each level from 1 – 10, not as yourself, but float above and rate how the team is doing
 - Taking one level at a time, starting with trust, have each person report their rating, writing the average ratings on the right side of the pyramid.
 - When there's a variation of 4 or more, write the range
 - Once ratings are on the board facilitation discussion.
 - Read from the book what Lencioni says is a low and high for each rung.
 - Trust, page 197
 - Conflict, page 204
 - Commitment, page 209
 - Accountability, page 214
 - Results, page 218
 - When there's a range, hear from the low & hear from the high
 - These are your team health ratings. The point is:
- In the EOS Process®, now that we understand the dysfunctions, we need to focus on building trust.

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

Trust Building Exercises

Segue into trust building exercises:

- I'm going to take you through 2 exercises to increase trust.
- Looking at these 2 exercises on a risk scale of 1 to 10, 1 is allowing you to stick your toe in the water; a 10 is somewhere we don't go.
- The first exercise is called "Personal Histories."
 - Do the personal histories exercise only in the first Annual session.
 - It's about a 3.
- We call the 2nd exercise One Thing. It's about a 7.
- We don't go higher than a 7.

Personal Histories

- Take 5 quiet minutes to answer the following 6 questions:
 - Hometown
 - Greatest challenge growing up
 - Number of siblings
 - First job
 - Worst job
 - Your "unique;" something nobody here knows about you
- Start with brave 1 and go to the left sharing all answers at once (no discussion – no passes)
 - Implementer participates
 - Keep dialog moving to complete exercise in 30 minutes

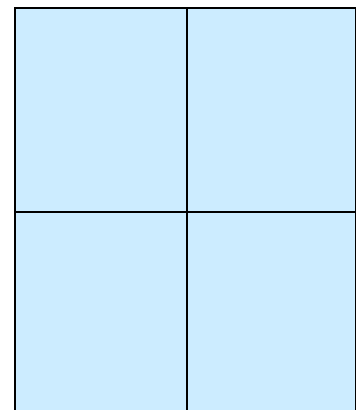

One Thing

The second exercise is called "One Thing" (We do this in every Annual session.)

- Awareness Tool to describe group/team dynamics
 - Johari Window has 4 panes and it's about self-discovery and knowing oneself. (D2)
 - Upper left – We know about you and you know about you
 - Upper right – We know about you, but you don't know it about yourself
 - Lower left – We don't know about you, but you do know

LTM PAGES AND DIAGRAMS

D2

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

- Lower right – We don't know, and you don't know
- The goal in our relationships is to move as much as we can into the OPEN pane of the window.
- The Personal Histories exercise helped us to move things from the HIDDEN to the OPEN pane of the window.
- The One Thing exercise moves things from the BLIND SPOT pane to the OPEN pane of the window, helping us to see things about ourselves we don't see.
- Two parts to the exercise: (Write these two parts on the board.)
 - Part 1 – Your most admirable trait

NOTE: 2nd or 3rd Annual will transition to greatest contribution to the team and organization
 - Part 2 – One thing to start or stop doing for the good of the team
- 1st explain the exercise to the team
- Start with the brave one and go left around the table in 2 passes.
 - Pass 1: start to the left of the person & have each person share the most admirable trait of the brave one
 - Pass 2: start to the left of the person & share the one thing they can start or stop doing
 - Ask the person: do we have permission to be completely honest?
 - Take 2 quiet minutes

Think about what you would like to tell the person concerning their most admirable trait and the one thing you would like them to start or stop doing for the good of the team
 - 2 ground rules for the team:
 - Rule 1: Look at person, helps to use their name
 - Rule 2: Implementer facilitates as little as possible
 - Pass 1 = Part 1

Person, your most admirable trait is _____.
 - Pass 2 = Part 2

Person, the one thing I really need you to start or stop doing is _____.
 - Person's job is to be an active listener and take notes.

Allowed to ask clarifying questions but not defend, debate, or discuss.

LTM PAGES AND DIAGRAMS

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

- After feedback has been shared with all team members, transition to One Thing Commitments
 - Each team member reviews their notes of start or stop feedback and selects one thing you will commit to working on in the next year.
 - Write commitment like this: In 20, I commit to start or stop.
 - Take 2 quiet minutes to write your commitment
 - Working to the left, have each leader share their commitments and get a thumbs up from their team
- Pick team member to volunteer to record all commitments on the One Thing Sheet for later review in each Quarterly Session.

NOTE: Record One Thing Commitments on Debrief in case they forget to bring their list to the next Quarterly

- End this Team Health segment by reviewing other Trust Builders™ (LTM Page 4)
- We have just done 2 of the 10
- You must keep working on these; pick 1 per quarter to do with the team, Integrator owns making sure this happens.
 - Read The Five Dysfunctions of a Team – the first step
 - Meeting Pulse™ – builds trust
 - 2-day Annual Session, 1-day Quarterly Sessions, and weekly Level 10 Meetings™ – maintain steady pulse
 - Same day, same time, same agenda, start on time, end on time
 - Personal Histories exercise – just completed; can now do with teams
 - One Thing exercise – just completed
 - Most admirable trait
 - Start / stop
 - Recommended annually
 - Social fun – laugh together
 - Next 3 designed to help you know yourself and know your team better
 - Kolbe profiles – www.kolbe.com
 - Myers Briggs / DISC profiles

 - DISC (various sources)

LTM PAGES AND DIAGRAMS

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

- Strengths Finder profile – your top 5 strengths out of 34 – www.strengthsfinder.com
- Personal issues solving session – when 2 team members are at odds and it's killing the team
 - Start by having each person report 3 strengths and 3 weaknesses of the other
 - List and tackle the issues following the Issues Solving Track™ (IDS)
 - 95% of the time, you will resolve the problem; 5%, one must go
- “Clear the air” meeting – (for the team) the team is in the funk
 - What's ticking you off?
 - List and tackle the issues following IDS
- When you feel they are ready, push them to roll it out to their teams

ORGANIZATIONAL CHECKUP

OBJECTIVES

1. Get everyone on the same page with where they are as an organization
2. Smoke out all the issues

TEACHING AND FACILITATION

Time: 1 Hour (LTM pages 5-6)

Turn focus to entire company not just the leadership team and make sure they are firing on all cylinders. Takes 1 hour – must move along but not too fast.

- Take 5 quiet minutes to complete the Organizational Checkup without totaling the ratings (1 weak; 5 strong).
- We're looking to accomplish 2 things:
 - Make sure you're all on the same page, making sure you're seeing things in the same way.
 - Extract the issues.
- Read each statement one at a time. Go to the left, having each person share their number rapid fire.
- Ensure they are on the same page (close the gap).
 - If they are within 1 number of each other, they're on the same page.
 - If they are greater than 2 apart, listen to the highest and the lowest. Discuss and get within 1 number.
- Extract issues and record on legal pad for later
- Do the math
 - Each leader shares their total
 - Implementer captures their average
 - 80% is the goal
